

2018 AGM and Conference

Building Our Sector - Institution-Building for Aboriginal Institutes

JUNE 14-15, 2018 RICHMOND, BC SHERATON VANCOUVER AIRPORT

The Indigenous Adult and Higher Learning Association (IAHLA) Annual General Meeting and Conference offers networking opportunities and showcases a range of practices to support the growth of Aboriginal post-secondary and adult education institutes in British Columbia.

Our theme this year, Building Our Sector – Institution-Building for Aboriginal Institutes, will bring together educators and administrators from IAHLA institutes and partners from across the province.

Registration

Registration and event news: www.iahla.ca/conference

Registration is free to employees and students of BC Aboriginal-controlled post-secondary or adult education institutes that are IAHLA members in good standing.

IAHLA will reimburse travel and accommodation up to $1000 for one representative per IAHLA institute. Following the AGM and conference, the IAHLA Board will make a determination if participants can be fully reimbursed for travel and accommodation expenses, pending additional funding.

Registrants will be contacted for workshop selection once the workshop schedule is finalized.
